Ins. RICO ¶ 5(f); WTCP RICO ¶ 5(f).	“[Numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi,] consistently, evenly [sic] constantly, laundered money, filed false tax returns, and otherwise impeded and impaired the administration of the tax laws as part of their scheme to conduit money to terrorists, and yet obfuscates their support of Radical Muslim Terrorism. The SAAR Network Entities . . . controlled by these defendants routinely moved around millions of dollars between them, with no innocent explanation for the layers of transactions taking place other than to obfuscate the fact that this money was going through these companies to offshore, untraceable banks on the Isle of Man, the Bahamas, and other locations, ultimately to support the Enterprise. [Numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi,] directed funds through a series of other entities over which they had influence until those funds ultimately reached a shell company in the Isle of Man, where they could no longer be tracked by federal authorities. These transactions bear all of the hallmarks of money laundering in support of terrorism. Such money laundering, the filing of false tax returns, and tax evasion were all in furtherance of a conspiracy to commit murder and arson which culminated in the September 11, 2001 Attacks.”	Conclusory allegations are insufficient to state a claim. In re Sept. 11th , 349 F. 		the September 11, 2001 Attacks. None of this would have been possible without the funds and sponsorship supplied by participants and conspirators including [numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi]. Indeed, the Enterprise would not have been successful without the enthusiastic participation of all of the conspirators, including [numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi]. In order to identify individuals willing, able, and trained to carry out the September 11, 2001 Attacks, al Qaeda needed to select from a vast pool of recruits and trainees, which pool would not have been available to it without the assistance provided by [numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi]. [Numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi], with knowledge and intent, agreed to the overall objectives of the enterprise or conspiracy, and agreed to commit at least two predicate acts and all agreed to participate in the conspiracy, either expressly or impliedly. [Numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi], with knowledge and intent, agreed to and did aid and abet all of the above illegal activities, RICO predicate acts, and RICO violations.”
21	Cont’l Cas. RICO ¶ 16	“[Numerous defendants’, including Saleh Al Rajhi,] uninterrupted financial and material support of terrorism, mail fraud, wire fraud, money laundering, and substantial assistance, enabled the Enterprise to plan, orchestrate, and carry out the Attack that injured plaintiffs. Therefore, the conduct of [numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi,] proximately resulted in the Attack. Plaintiffs suffered injury to their property by reason of the above conduct of [numerous defendants, including Saleh Al Rajhi].”	Conclusory allegations are insufficient to state a claim. In re Sept. 11th , 349 F.
